

Solemnisation

and , do I understand that you are here of your own free will, for the purpose of becoming man and wife?

(Couple: Yes)

Before you are joined in matrimony, it is my duty to remind you of the solemn and binding character of the vows you are about to make. Marriage according to law, is the union of one man and one woman, voluntarily entered into for life, to the exclusion of all others.

(Request couple to stand)

To Groom:

Do you, , take this woman , to be your wedded wife, to live together in the legal estate of matrimony?

(Answer: I do)

Will you love her, comfort her, honour and keep her, in sickness and in health, and forsaking all others, to be faithful to her, so long as you both shall live?

(Answer: I will)

To Bride:

Do you, , take this man , to be your wedded husband, to live together in the legal estate of matrimony?

(Answer: I do)

Will you love him, comfort him, honour and keep him, in sickness and in health, and forsaking all others, be faithful to him, so long as you both shall live?

(Answer: I will)
